Grassroot Football Ecosystem

India, Premier league scouts are here for you

India has lot of talented players who just need right counseling & feedback to get groom them. We are coming for you guys to learn from our collective 30+ years of experience working in UK with top most premier league clubs.

We are coming to India to provide you guys with right feedback and assessment of your game. We will also be looking for exceptional players whom we will take to UK “Free of Cost” for Elite Player development program. We have conducted such workshops in multiple countries across the world and are representing some of the finest talent out there.

If you aspire to become a professional football player; you must come and visit us.

Know us better

Workshops

ProSoccerGlobal has partnered with India Khelo Football to enable talent identification in India at grassroots level. In this endeavour we are conducting these workshops at multiple cities in India.

ProSoccerGlobal

ProSoccerGlobal is a unique organization that provides football experiences on and off the field for boys and girls teams across all age groups and ability levels. Utilizing the knowledge and expertise of the ProSoccerGlobal staff, ProSoccerGlobal have designed programs and services that support development as a footballer and academically.

IKF

India Khelo Football is a not-for-profit program which is focusing on creating a structured career path for aspiring football players by integrating grassroots football with professional football. Operationally we achieve this by conducting Trials across India, scouting exceptional talent & showcasing them to clubs from across the world. In our Season 1 IKF conducted Trials in 17 cities across India and placed 20+ kids in top most clubs in India & abroad. IKF has kick started Season 2 - 24 city talent hunt in July 2022
